

Some time ago, when this website was setting out, one of our UK subscribers wrote to the Guest Book on the Main Menu.

He wrote as follows . . .

"Can I say how much I enjoy accessing the Liturgical Calendar and reading the brief outlines for a Feast Day. The www.RathkennyParish.ie website can be found in my "daily favourites" selection. Additionally, I love accessing the varied Topics of Faith under the Main Menu, and have learned so much about the basics of faith, having returned to faith after many years of absence, through the influence of the late John Paul the Great, and a kindly priest hailing from the West of Ireland. May all who visit this site be richly blessed. Go n-éiri Réalta na Beithile i gcroi gach uile dhuine."

We would like to hear from YOU!

Let's have a comment, feedback, greeting, suggestion, request for prayer, or (very brief) 'testimony' of your life experience (as above). Keep it around 100 words, or less.

We will publish the best ones. If too long, we may edit your remarks. No commentary or reference to the comments of others will be published.
