

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gerry Boyle PP. 046 9054138

Our return to public mass continues. We are back five weeks now. Thanks to all who are making it possible for us, sacristans, cleaners and stewards. The wearing of face masks is being recommended and masks are available at the entrance to church.

Masses this week

Rathkenny

Sun 11.30am,

Mon 10am

Wed 9am,

Fri 7.30pm

Rushwee

Sat 6.30pm,

Thurs 7.30pm

Grangegeeth

Sun 10am

Tues 7.30pm

All the above masses will be offered for those buried in our parish cemeteries. All graves were blessed during the past week. In lieu of a cemetery collection this year, envelopes will be available at the churches if you could make a contribution towards the upkeep of the cemeteries.

Sacred Space

Lord, in this place
we come to revere
the beloved memory of those gone before us,
those we have loved.
In this hallowed place
we ask you to bestow on them
the joy of your peace,
that they may know eternal rest.
In this sacred place

we seek solace,
trusting that one day
we will all be with you in Paradise. Amen.

Please remain at home if you feel unwell and follow the guidance of the stewards if you attend.
Please consider offering your help to the Parochial House as it will be necessary in the time ahead. Please don't leave it to the usual willing people.

Mass intentions next weekend

Sat Rushwee 6.30pm - John Reilly, Gabriel Doyle

Sun Grangegeeth 10am - Nancy Keeley.

Sun Rathkenny 11.30 am - Elizabeth Halligan, Brendan Curtis.

Meath diocesan pilgrimage to Knock is a virtual pilgrimage this year. Please watch knockshrine.ie from 2.30pm next Sunday.

From a headstone:

Remember, stranger passing by:
as you are now, so once was I;
as I am now, so you will be;
therefore prepare to follow me.
