

There were also women looking on from a distance.
Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of the younger James and of Joses, and Salome.

These women had followed him when he was in Galilee and ministered to him. There were also many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem.