

Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Immaculate Heart of Mary, Virgin of Fatima, Mother of Mercy, Queen of Heaven and Earth, Refuge of Sinners, I consecrate myself, my family and home in a very special way to your Immaculate Heart.

By this act of consecration I intend to live, with you and through you, all the obligations assumed by my baptismal consecration. I further pledge to bring about in myself that interior conversion so urgently demanded by the Gospel, a conversion that will free me of every attachment to myself and to easy compromises with the world so that, like you, I may be available only to do always the will of the Father.

And as I resolve to entrust to you, O Mother most sweet and merciful, my life and vocation as a Christian, that you may dispose of it according to your designs of salvation in this hour of decision that weighs upon the world, I pledge to live it according to your desires, especially as it pertains to a renewed spirit of prayer and penance, the fervent participation in the celebration of the Eucharist and in the works of the apostolate, the daily recitation of the Holy Rosary, and an austere manner of life in keeping with the Gospel, that shall be to all a good example of the observance of the law of God and the practice of the Christian virtues, especially that of purity.

I further promise you to be united with the Holy Father, with the hierarchy and with our priests, in order thus to set up a barrier to the growing confrontation directed against the Magisterium, that threatens the very foundation of the Church.

Under your protection, I want moreover to be an apostle of this sorely needed unity of prayer and love for the Pope, on whom I invoke your special protection.

And lastly, insofar as possible, I promise to lead those souls with whom I come in contact to a renewed devotion to you.

Mindful that atheism has caused shipwreck in the faith to a great number of the faithful, that desecration has entered into the holy temple of God, and that evil and sin are spreading more and more throughout the world, I make so bold as to lift my eyes trustingly to you, O Mother of Jesus and my merciful and powerful Mother, and I invoke again today and await from you the salvation of all your children, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.
